GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL SECTIONS

Notification of Claims

It is a condition precedent to the Company’s liability under this Policy that, upon the happening of any event giving rise to or likely to give rise to a Claim under any section of this Policy, that the Policyholder ensures that the Insured is made aware of and complies with the provisions (as will be relevant to the Insured) set out below, including Annexure 1 below:

- a. In respect of any Claim under sections A and/or B, the Insured or, if deceased, his legal or other representative, will immediately notify the Claims Administrator and provide the letter/e-mail with the name of the Physician, the name and telephone number of the hospital at which treatment is being obtained, and the fact or matter giving rise to the need for medical treatment, and any other documentation or information that may be required or requested by the Claims Administrator.

All hospitalizations must be notified to Assistance Company to accommodate claims under Section A

- b. For all other Claims, the Insured will immediately, and in any event not later than 60 days after his/her return to Sri Lanka, notify the Claims Administrator and obtain a Claim form for completion and return to the Claims Administrator along with supporting invoices and any other documentation or information that might be required or requested by the Claims Administrator.
- c. The Insured will not admit any liability or make any offer or promise of payment without the prior written consent of the Company.

Reasonable Care

The Insured will take all reasonable and proper steps to safeguard and protect himself/herself and his/her possessions against any fact, matter, circumstance or cause that might result in a Claim under this Policy, and will not do or cause to be done anything that might enhance the likelihood of a Claim under this Policy (except in an attempt to save human life).

Transfer of Interest

The Insured may not transfer his interest in this Policy, but his/her legal representatives may represent him/her in respect of a Claim under this Policy if the Insured is incapacitated or deceased. The Insured will not transfer, assign, alienate or in any way pass the benefits and/or liabilities to any other person, institution, hospital, company or body corporate without specific prior approval in writing by a duly authorized officer of the Company. However, if the Insured is permanently incapacitated or deceased, the legal heirs of the Insured may represent him/her in respect of a Claim under the Policy.

Assessment of Claim & Payment

- a) No sum payable under this Policy will carry interest.
- b) The Company will be under no liability to make payment in respect of any Claim until such time as the Insured has provided it and/or provided the Claims Administrator with whatever documentation and/or information as may be requested and established the quantum of any amount claimed to the Company's satisfaction.
- c) The obligation of the Company to make payments to the Insured in respect of Claims made after the Insured's return to Sri Lanka will be to make payment in Sri Lankan Rupees only.
- d) Specifically, in respect of a Claim under Sections A and/or B:
 - i. The Company's liability to make payment is in respect of those charges approved by the Claims Administrator
 - ii. If requested by the Claims Administrator and/or the Company, the Insured will(at his/her own expense) furnish all certificates, information, proofs or other evidence in support of the Claim, present himself/herself for medical examination by a Medical Advisor as considered necessary by the Claims Administrator and/or the Company, and the Insured agrees that the Claims Administrator and/or the Company may approach anyone who may have treated the Insured for information and/or documentation in respect of the Claim.
 - iii. In the event of the Insured's death, the Company will have the right to carry out a post mortem at its own expense.
 - iv. Where the Insured is incapacitated or otherwise unable to give a valid release for the Claim, the Company may make arrangements to pay the Claim to the Insured's legal guardian or legal representative. Any payment made by the Company thereby in good faith will operate as a complete and effective discharge of the Company's liability in respect of the Claim.
 - v. The Company will not pay Medical Expenses except at the Usual and Customary Level.

Fraud

If the Insured will make or advance any Claim knowing the same to be false or fraudulent as regards to amount or otherwise, this Policy will be void in respect of such Insured and all Claims or payments to such insured hereunder will be forfeited.

Notifications & Declarations

Any and all notices and declarations for the attention of the Company will be submitted in writing and will be sent to the address specified in the Schedule.

Subrogation

At our discretion, we may start, control and settle legal proceedings for our own benefit in your name to recover compensation or secure indemnity from any party in respect of anything covered by this policy. We may do so in your name and on your behalf. You also consent to us seeking to recover any money we have paid to you from a third party. You must help us to do this, even if we have not yet paid your claim, and even if the amount we pay is less than full compensation for your loss.

Due Observance

The due observance of and compliance with the terms, provisions, warranties and conditions of this Policy in so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured will be a condition precedent to the Company's liability under this Policy.

Contribution

If, at the time of the happening of any loss or damage covered by this Policy there will be existing any other insurance of any nature whatsoever covering the same, whether effected by the Insured or not, then the Company will not be liable to pay or contribute more than its ratable proportion of any loss or damage.

Dispute Resolution

If any dispute or difference will arise as to the quantum to be paid under the Policy or if any other doubt, dispute or difference arises concerning this Policy or any matter of whatsoever nature arising there under or the operation or the interpretation thereof or the rights, duties or liabilities of the Insured under and/or in connection therewith, between the Company and the Insured the same will be referred to a competent court in Sri Lanka for judicial resolution.

Governing Law

The construction, interpretation and meaning of the provisions of this Policy will be determined in accordance with the laws of Sri Lanka. The Section headings of this Policy are included for descriptive purposes only and do not form part of this Policy for the purpose of its construction or interpretation. The terms of this Policy will not be waived or changed except by endorsement issued by the Company.

General Exclusions Applicable to All Sections

The Company will be under no liability to make payment hereunder in respect of any Claim directly or indirectly caused by, based on, arising out of or howsoever attributable to any of the following:

- a) The Insured's participation in any naval, military or air force operations whether in the form of military exercises or war games or actual engagement with the enemy, whether foreign or domestic.
- b) War, invasion, acts of foreign enemy, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, civil unrest, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power or
